Skip to main content WHAT IS SUSTAINABLE FASHION? The fast fashion industry has completely revolutionized fashion, but not for the better. Behind every piece of clothing in the store, there is a destructive industry stripping the Earth of its limited resources and placing a devastating toll on the labor force working in garment factories. It aims to reorient the industry and consumers away from the fast fashion model and toward sustainable practices in sourcing, production, distribution, marketing, and consumption. Sign the petition - the Fashion industry must change WHAT YOU CAN DO Consumers have the power to change the trajectory of fast fashion. Here are a few important things you can do: Educate yourself about sustainable clothing. Buy less and shop for quality over quantity. Choose natural materials - organic cotton, linen, or hemp.Buy 100% recycled fabrics - 100% recycled polyester, viscose (rayon), etc. Research brands to identify those that are ethical and practice transparency and sustainability. Post a picture of yourself wearing a sustainable garment, explaining its attributes and why you like it. Tag us on social media!Choose brands that are manufactured in their own community and connected to the place, people behind them, local economy, and environment. Buy secondhand clothing. Swap clothes with a clothes swap group or start a swap yourself. Learn how to repair your clothes yourself. The longer clothes are kept, the lower their emissions footprint. Test your knowledge — Take a quiz How To Sustainably Shop for Your Clothes Learn more How to Care for Your Clothes Learn more How to Create a Capsule Collection Learn more 'My Planet, My Closet' is a project designed to create a dialogue around sustainable fashion and change the prevailing mindset around shopping. 'My Planet, My Closet' is a play on the typical fast fashion hauls circulating on social media — but with a twist. EARTHDAY.ORG invites you to inspire others by sending us a video about your sustainable clothing that we will showcase across our platforms. Read below how to answer our collective call to action!
